1.0 Disclaimers and Confidentiality Provisions

Before submitting this form, please read the Applicant Guide.

It is recommended that you save a copy of your proposal(s) for your records before submitting it.

By submitting this Application, the applicant (the "Applicant") acknowledges and agrees to all of the disclaimers and confidentiality provisions set forth below.

Disclaimers:

- The CIB is under no obligation to approve any project or any financing; the CIB Commercial Building Retrofits Initiative (the "Initiative") is a discretionary non-entitlement initiative and even if an Application meets all of the Initiative criteria, there is no guarantee that financing will be awarded;
- Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the CIB has no obligation or duty, in any way, whether in contract, at law or otherwise, to proceed with the Initiative and reserves the complete and absolute right to terminate the Initiative or to replace the Initiative with another initiative on the same or similar terms as the Initiative;
- The CIB reserves the right to impose whatever conditions it deems advisable in the acceptance of an Application and in the financing agreement; and
- All Applicants whose projects are approved for financing will be notified in writing.

Confidentiality Provisions:

No information collected in this Application (including any information, statements and documents attached to this Application and any information contained therein or provided to the CIB in relation to this Application) that is identified as commercially confidential information will be disclosed by the CIB without your preauthorization other than as described below:

- Information will be released to the extent required by law (including the Access to Information Act, Privacy Act, Financial Administration Act, Auditor General Act, or Canada Infrastructure Bank Act) or other legal, judicial, governmental, quasi-governmental, administrative, supervisory or regulatory process;
- As part of the assessment and review process, information may be shared with employees, officers and directors, agents, auditors, professional advisors, legal counsel, potential financiers, Infrastructure Canada, the Department of Finance Canada and to other federal, provincial, territorial, municipal or indigenous government sponsors who would have jurisdiction over a proposed project;
- Once a project is approved, as part of the Government of Canada's policies to ensure transparency and accountability, the CIB may proactively disclose project information (including the name of recipient, the amount of CIB funding and the general nature of the project); and
- In addition, whether or not an Application is approved, CIB may use general information included in this Application for policy analysis and research purposes and for the purposes of administering the Initiative or satisfying government accountability and reporting obligations.

The Applicant shall not, without the prior written consent of the CIB, refer to the submission of this Application to the CIB or the Applicant's intent to seek project approval or funding from the CIB or attribute any information to the CIB in any external communication for any purpose, including but not limited to in any press release, website, offering memoranda, or any other public use.

Information Rights:

Any document or content submitted as part of this Application process shall be deemed and remain the property of the CIB.
